SPACE ALLOCATION PLAN:

See appendix 1 on the last page

WASTE MANAGEMENT:

All stands are responsible for getting rid of their own waste. Waste containers will be set up on the site where you can deposit commercial waste. It is not permitted to deposit waste in the public waste bins set up on the site. We sort the following waste types in a marked area where you as stand holders must deposit your waste. General combustibles, glass, cardboard, metal and fried food. If you are in doubt about the difference between the containers, you can contact Trine and get guidance.

POWER:

There will be access to power outlets within 20 meters of your vehicle, but you must bring the necessary cables and/or panels for your own use.

We cannot guarantee power before 12:00 on opening day.

PARKING:

If you need to park your private car or similar, please use the public parking on the surrounding streets. Free parking is not included in the event.

(See overview and addresses further down)

FOOD TICKETS:

Mad & Kultur Food Ticket

Employees, friends of the house and other involved parties receive food tickets so that they can eat at the market. The tickets function as vouchers for 25 kr. If you receive these, you must hand over food for 25 kr. If you receive two or more, you give the customer money back if the value of the food tickets exceeds the value of what was handed over. At the end of the festival, you hand over the tickets to the Mad & Kultur person in charge at the site, and we will then offset these on the final invoice.

ONLY the returned tickets are included in the accounts, we do not accept food tickets after the event.

SALE OF BEVERAGES

Drinks may not be sold unless you have a special agreement with Food & Culture. Selling drinks can, in the worst case, result in expulsion from the venue.

HYGIENE AND CONTROL:

You must ensure that you meet the statutory hygiene requirements yourself. Remember to have water in your stall, possibly in the form of a plastic can. In addition, approved gas permits and labels for these.

WATER:

There is no possibility of direct water connection. There will also be no possibility of establishing a drain. We recommend that you bring filled cans - and there will be a water outlet on the site, from which you can draw water for your cans along the way.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS INCLUDING FIRE:

It is required that you bring correct and approved fire equipment yourself. An inspection will be carried out. If there are errors and deficiencies, you cannot be allowed to start selling from your stall until the conditions have been put in order.

REMEMBER! Correct signage of fire equipment and gas, this is mandatory.

Checklist

- Foam extinguisher adapted to your heat source
- Fire extinguisher, dated and serviced
- Fire blanket
- Sign indicating storage of pressure cylinders if gas
- No storage of extra gas in the shed is acceptable

SECURITY:

Mad & Kultur is not responsible for any equipment left on the site, so if you leave your things overnight, it is at your own risk. However, there will be guards at night.

If you have any other questions regarding practical matters at the site, you are welcome to contact Trine directly by phone or email (40321551 / trine@madogkultur.dk)

We look forward to seeing you!

Kind regards

Your Mad & Kultur Team
